Dear Mr. Timothy Leary, long ago I had a letter from you and was very happy by this sign.

But then I believed you are free and you will come in Switzerland.
But it was an invention?

Last month our friend Mel Fishman died at Gstaad, because his heart.
And now, as I hear, the film of Steppenwolf is running at London and shall come afterwards to Switzerland.

I hope you will get free as soon as possible and then I hope to see you again. Next year is my father's 100th Birthday and so we have a lot of work: expositions, symposiums, editions etc.

Please let me know how you are
